TO THE BALD-HEADED,
AND all who would have a fine flowing head of hair. Never till lately did we believe that there was any thing that would restore hair on bald-heads; but the proof that we have seen that OLDRIDGE'S BALM OF COLUMBIA, from Comstock & Ross, 52 Cornhill, will do it, is incontestible. We have seen a friend, who is seventy years of age, and was for twenty years perfectly bald, who has had his hair restored with this balm, and numerous instances of a similar kind have lately come to our notice, which induces us to recommend it to all who are losing their hair. For our part, we would not be without this balm on any account. [Democrat.

SWELLING OF THE BODY FROM HEAD TO FOOT, CURED!!
BOSTON, (Mass.) March 10, 1844.
SIR:—About a year since I was taken severely ill, with a swelling of the body from head to foot, so that I was entirely helpless. The doctor advised me to go to the Hospital; for he said he did not understand my case. The persuasion of friends induced me to try Dr. Lorain's Vegetable Pills, which in a few days, produced a great change in my system, by increasing the natural discharges, causing an appetite, relieving the pain, removing the swelling, and giving me strength, and a perfect cure.
MARY JANE FRANCES.

A SEVERE PAIN IN BOTH SIDES, CURED!
LOWELL, (Mass) April 20, 1844.
SIR—For the last few months I have been afflicted with a severe pain in both sides, at times so hard that I could scarcely get my breath. * * * It is a pleasure to feel well—but a much greater one to say that I was cured immediately upon taking 1 dose of Dr Loraine's Pills. J. BROOKS.

A HACKING COUGH CONSTANTLY ANNOYED ME!
BOSTON, (Mass) June 1, 1844.
Sir:—In February last, I took a sudden cold, after which, a hacking cough constantly annoyed me, and this, combined with my other maladies, rendered me truly miserable, as every body told me that I was in a consumption. Since I have taken Loraine's Pills, and now every body tells me that I am well;—I feel as well as ever I did.

WONDERFUL CURE OF DEAFNESS.
READ THE FOLLOWING:—My Dear Sir: It has become so common lately to puff medicines by letters, that I would now refrain from any expression of my feelings or opinion, did I not feel compelled to speak in justice to you, and out of a desire to serve my fellow men. You remember with what reluctance I was induced to try Scrapa's Oil for Deafness, for I felt convinced, after many ineffectual attempts, that a deafness of ten year's standing could not be cured by any medicine; but will you believe it when I tell you on my second bottle, I can hear almost as well as any member of my family. The effect upon me has been magical; my former existence seems like a dream; and the pleasure of listening to and hearing conversation carried on in an ordinary tone of voice, after being so long subjected to the use of the ear trumpet, is almost astonishing. I do not much like to have my name in print, but as the above statement may do some good, I have no objection to your using it.
Your obliged friend, L. M. CHELMSFORD. 334 Washington Street.

TRUE WISDOM.
A WISE general on the eve of battle makes a proper disposition of his forces beforehand, and does not wait till the enemy has made an attack, and thus, by forethought and due preparation, reasonably expects a victory, thus he who has a desire to attain a healthy and consequently happy old age, does not indolently wait for the attack of the enemy, which is sickness, but is constantly on his guard against his insidious approaches, by paying proper attention to the state of his health. Many would fain occasionally use medicine to assist nature in her operation, but like a mariner at sea without his compass, knowing not where to steer, they first try this and then that, and meet with nothing but disappointment; to these, how welcome must be the important fact, that Parr's Life Pills are now proved to be all that are required to conquer disease and prolong life.

SUGAR COATED, OR "Improved Indian Vegetable" PILLS,
For Intermittent, Remittent, Bilious, and Inflammatory Fevers; Head Ache; Indigestion; Dyspepsia, Perverted Appetite; Heartburn; Costiveness, Diarrhœa, Dysentery; Bilous Colic; Worms; Foul Stomach, Pain in the Head, Side, Back, Scrofula, Scurvy, or any Impurities of the Blood; Obstructions and Female Complaints generally.
THERE has never appeared a medicine, which, while it can do no harm, is calculated to do so much good. They excite a healthful perspiration, and open all the natural drains of the system. The obstruction of Insensible Perspiration is the cause of a great proportion of human suffering. These pills possess the power, in an extraordinary degree, of removing all obstructions, and restoring a healthful circulation. They must undoubtedly supersede all other purgative medicines, as they have a four fold action—viz: a discharge by the bowels, lungs, kidneys, and skin.
Children will not hesitate to take them; and they may be relied on, beyond any other remedy, as an effectual and safe Medicine for WORMS, and all complaints incident to children. More children have been cured in New York the present year, by the use of Dr SMITH'S Pills, than all other medicines combined—as there is no need of forcing them down, like other medicines.
One important advantage in taking these pills is, they do not gripe, nor produce nausea nor any other unpleasant sensation. Pills have, in thousands of instances, produced Piles, and other consequences far worse than the disease for which they were administered. This is particularly guarded against in the combination of the many ingredients of which Dr Smith's pills are composed—thus rendering them HARMLESS.
These pills are made of the purest materials; and we have the satisfaction of having proved to the Medical Faculty, that they possess uncommon virtues.
The directions, and treatment of diseases, accompany every box, in a circular of 4 pages.
No "SUGAR COATED PILLS" can be genuine without the signature of the inventor, G. BENJAMIN SMITH, M. D., President of the N. Y. College of Health, upon every box.

[From a Nephew of the late Judge Thompson.] New York, May 16, 1844.
Dr. SMITH'S "Indian Vegetable Pills" have proven invaluable to myself and family, in the cure of violent HEAD-ACHE, pain in the side and stomach. For children, no better medicine can be produced. In the case of our little girl, two years old, the most happy effects have resulted from their use. I have never known a medicine which I could so confidently recommend as these pills. R. THOMPSON, 56 Northmore street.
The following lady is too well known in New York for her intelligence and philanthropy to be doubted.
[From the Matron of the U. S. Naval Hospital.]
Accustomed as I am to administer to the sick, I can appreciate a valuable medicine. If there be a medicine adapted to the numerous ailments of mankind, it is DR. SMITH'S Sugar Pills. I have used them and seen them used with the most astonishing results, in several instances within my knowledge, restoring the patient from extreme lowness and suffering to strength and health. For ladies during pregnancy, these pills are a sovereign balm. I recommend them to all as a valuable FAMILY MEDICINE.
SARAH A. GOULD, Matron of the U. S. Naval Hospital.
Brooklyn June 10th, 1844.
[From the Deputy Sheriff of New York.]
Dr. SMITH'S "Surgical Indian Vegetable Pills" have been used in the Eldridge-St. Debtor's Prison with uncommon satisfaction. I have never heard a medicine spoken of with more interest by the sick who have taken these pills. JAS. J. BEVINS, Deputy Sheriff.
[AN EXTRAORDINARY CURE.]
I have to record an instance of unparalleled suffering, which must have terminated my existence, had not Dr. SMITH'S "Sugared Indian Vegetable Pills" come to rescue. In the Fall of 1843, I had a scrofulous affection, which nearly covered my body with sores, and rendered me unfit for life. In the course of two months I was attacked with fever, which raged with great violence. I took many prescriptions, but without getting relief. My suffering was great. Mrs. Gould (whom I shall ever remember with esteem) advised me to use these Sugar Pills, which I took in large doses a few days, when the fever and pain abated. I continued these pills in small doses, about five weeks, when my Fever and Scrofula were cured, my blood completely purified, and my general health improved.
I am certain I owe my life, under Providence, to the use of these pills. E. M. PARK, New York
[From Jas. M. Turner, Esq, late of the U. S. Navy.]
I have been afflicted several years with a weakness in the breast, costiveness and difficulty of breathing. I was lately more than ever troubled, though I had taken many prescribed remedies. Through the advice of a friend, I procured Dr. SMITH'S Patent Sugared Pills, which I used, and they have not only relieved, but entirely cured my complaints. My wife has also used them with the most happy effects. I believe them the best medicine in the world.
JAMES M. TURNER, 581 Greenwich-St. N. Y.
Refers to the Hon Silas Wright, U. S. Senate.
PERFECT CURE OF WORMS.
Our little girl, 6 years old, has suffered all the worst stages of worms, and we have never found an effectual cure, until we administered Dr. Smith's Sugar Pills, which our little girl took without the least reluctance, in doses of two at a time; and we never witnessed such a change in so short a time. The pills brought away a mass of worms, and she at once improved. She is now in joyous health. We have also found the great est benefit from their use.
JACOB CARLOCK, 8 Staple-st. New York.
We have many certificates of cures in case of Worms.
From a lady well known in New York.
I have been troubled for years with dizziness and pain in the head, attended with depression, dimness of sight, &c., which have been entirely cured by Dr Smith's "Sugared Indian Vegetable Pills." I prize this medicine above all others. SARAH DOUGLASS, Corner of Ludlow and Walker sts.
The following is from one of the oldest and most respectable farmers in Madison Co. N. Y.
Cazenovia, July 28, 1844.
I have used 40 boxes of Brandreth's Pills, and as many more of different kinds, and I have never found that benefit from the use of the whole that I have from the use of two boxes of Dr Smith's "Improved Indian Vegetable Pills.
They seem to strike at the foundation of my disease which is of a billious character. IRA ALVORD.
[Mr Alvord was, with another, the first settler of the beautiful village of Cazenovia, about 50 years ago.]
OLD MEN and YOUNG MEN have, without number, given their testimonials for these excellent family pills And MOTHERS! we wish we could lay before the world all the expressions of approbation which we have heard from them in New York. VOLATILE AROMATIC SNUFF, FOR HEADACHE AND CATARRH, COMPOSED PRINCIPALLY OF ROOTS AND AROMATIC HERBS.
FEW or none of the Snuffs in ordinary use, unite those advantages as an elegant sternutatory which Tobacco combined with other ingredients, is capable of producing. The common Scotch Snuff is not only destitute of fine flavor, but is universally allowed to be injurious to the head and stomach, and sooner or later affects the transparency and color of the skin. [illegible] course black Snuff instead of clearing and stimulating the olfactory nerves, serves but to obstruct and deaden them: and in process of time, by stopping the passages has an evident effect upon the speech.
The Volatile Aromatic Snuff will, by experience, be found not liable to these objections—its flavor is fragrant and delightful, the effect pleasing and salutary; it sensibly stimulates the spirits, and removes drowsiness. By repeated experiments it is known to be of essential service to those who are troubled with long dull nervous headaches.
In cases of Catarrh, or what is commonly called cold in the head, a pinch or two taken at night on going to bed, will effectually remove all obstructions.
All those troubled with hypocondria, or vapors, will find in this preparation a complete antidote. During the tedious confinement in a crowded house, or a warm atmosphere, after a fatiguing walk or a long ride, a pinch or two of this Snuff will by its grateful and cultivating qualities, richly repay the purchaser the trouble of constantly having it in his pocket.
From its great and anti-putrescent qualities, no composition is better qualified to resist contagion, the use of it is therefore indispensable for all those who watch with or visit the sick.
All sedentary and studious persons of either sex, will find its occasional use a cheap and cheering relief from that lassitude which invariably accompanies a long sitting or much reading.
[Certificate from Dr. Benjamin Waterhouse, Member of the Medical Society in London, of the Medical School in France, and late professor of the Theory and Practice of Physic in Harvard University in Cambridge accompanies each bottle.
The certificate concludes with these words—"I have frequently used your composition myself, and recommended it to others."
This certificate was given more than thirty years ago, during which period it has been and is still in extensive use in nearly every State in the Union, and with the greatest approbation. ☞ Price 25 and 50 cents per bottle. Also WHITWELL'S ORIGINAL OPODELDOC.
For Bruises, Sprains, Cramp, Numbness, Rheumatism, Rheumatic Pains, Stiffness of the Neck or Limbs, Stings of Insects, Vegetable Poisons, Chilblains, etc.
This well known article has stood the test of twenty years and is still sought for, in every State in the Union, and so high is its reputation that city and country have been flooded with the vilest imitations of it, not worth the bottles which contain it. Be not imposed upon, have WHITWELL'S OPODELDOC or none, unless you wish to prove the truth of the Hudibrastic remark,
"That the pleasure is as great,
In being cheated as to cheat."
N. B. A certificate of approbation from Dr. Sam'l L. Mitchell, M. D. L. L. D. late Professor of Medicine in the New York College of Physicians, accompanies each bottle. Price 25 cents.

MISCELLANEOUS.

We have parted, Mary.
BY CHARLES SPRAGUE.

I knew that we must part. Day after day
I saw the dread Destroyer with his way;
That hollow cough first rang the fatal knell,
As on my ear its prophet warning fell;
Feeble and slow thy once light footsteps grew,
Thy wasting cheek put on death's pallid hue,
Thy thin, hot hand, to mine more quickly clung,
Each sweet 'good night' fell fainter from thy tongue.

I knew that we must part. No power could save
Thy quiet goodness from an early grave;
Those eyes so dull, though kind each glance they cast,
Looking a sister's fondness to the last;
Thy lips so pale, which gently pressed my cheek,
Thy voice—alas! thou could'st but try to speak;
All told thy doom; I felt it at my heart,
The shaft had struck—I knew that we must part.

And we HAVE PARTED, Mary—thou art gone!
Gone in thine innocence, meek suffering one,
Thy weary spirit breathed itself to sleep
So peacefully, it seemed a sin to weep;
And those fond watchers who around thee stood,
Felt even then, that God was ever good.
Like stars which struggle through the clouds of night,
Thine eyes one moment caught a glimpse of light.
As if to thee in that dread hour 'twere given
[illegible] on earth what faith BELIEVES of heaven.

Then like tired breezes didst thou sink to rest;
Nor one, one pang the awful change confessed,
Death stole in softness o'er that lovely face,
And touched each feature with a new born grace:
On cheek and brow on earthly beauty lay,
And told that life's poor cares had passed away,
In my last hour be Heaven so kind to me,
I ask no more than this—to die like thee.

Yes, we have parted, Mary thou art dead!
On its last resting-place I laid thy head.
Then by the coffin side knelt down, and took
A brother's farewell kiss and farewell look;
Those marble lips no kindred kiss returned;
From those veiled orbs no glance responsive burned;
Ah! THEN I FELT that thou had'st passed away,
That the sweet face I gazed upon was clay.

And then came Memory with her busy throng
Of tender images forgotten long.
Years hurried back, and as they swiftly rolled,
I saw thee, heard thee, as in days of old:
Sad and more sad, each sacred feeling grew,
Manhood was moved, and sorrow claimed her due;
Thick, thick and fast the burning tear-drop started,
I turned away—and FELT THAT WE HAD PARTED.

The body Laborer and the mind Laborer.
Two men I honor, and no third. First, the toilworn craftsman, that, with earth made implement, laboriously conquers the earth, and makes her man's. Venerable to me is the hard hand, crooked, coarse; wherein, notwithstanding, lies a cunning, virtue, indefeasibly royal, as of the sceptre of this planet. Venerable, too, is the rugged face, all weather-tanned, besoiled, with its rude intelligence; for it is the face of a man living manlike. Oh, but the more venerable for thy rudeness, and even because we must pity as well as love thee! Hardly entreated brother! For us was thy back so bent, for us were thy straight limbs and fingers so deformed; thou wert our conscript, on whom the lot fell, and fighting our battle wert so marred. For in thee, too, lay a God created form, but it was not to be unfolded; encrusted must it stand with the thick adhesions and defacements of labor; and thy body, like thy soul, was not to know freedom. Yet toil on, toil on; thou art in thy duty, be out of it who may; thou toilest for the altogether indispensable, for daily bread.

A second man I honor, and still more highly; him who is seen toiling for the spiritually indispensable—not daily bread but the Bread of Life. Is not he, too, in his duty, endeavoring towards inward harmony—revealing this by act and by word, through all his outward endeavors, be they high or low? Highest of all, when his outward and inward endeavor are one; when we can name him artist; not earthly craftsman only, but inspired thinker, that with heaven-made implement conquers heaven for us. If the poor and humble toil that we may have food, must not the high and glorious toil for him in return, that he may have Light, Guidance, Freedom, Immortality! These two, in all their degrees, I honor: all else is chaff and dust, which let the wind blow whither it listeth.

Unspeakably touching is it, however, when I find both dignities united; and he that must toil outwardly for the lowest of man's wants, is also toiling inwardly for the highest. Sublimer in this world know I nothing than a peasant saint, could such anywhere now be met with. Such a one will take thee back to Nazareth itself; thou will see the splendor of heaven spring forth from the humblest depths of earth, like a light shining in great darkness.

And again; it is not because of his toil that I lament for the poor; we must all toil or steal, (however we name our stealing,) which is worse; no faithful workman finds his task a pastime. The poor man is hungry and athirst, but for him also there is food and drink; he is heavy-laden and weary, but for him also the heavens send sleep, and of the deepest; in his smoky crib, a clear-dewy heaven of rest envelopes him, and fitful glimmerings of cloud-skirted dreams—But what I do mourn over is, that the lamp of his soul should go out; that no ray of heavenly, or even of earthly, knowledge should visit him; but only in the haggard darkness, like two spectres, Fear and Indignation. Alas, while the body stands so broad and brawny, must the soul lie blinded, dwarfed, stupified, almost annihilated! Alas, was this, too, a breath of God; bestowed in heaven, but on earth never to be unfolded! That there should one man die ignorant who had capacity for knowledge, this I call a tragedy, were it to happen more than twenty times in a minute, as by some computations it does.—Carlyle.

Young men, a word in your ear, when you choose a wife. Do not be facinated with a dashing creature, fond of society, vain, artistical and showy, in dress. You do not want a doll or a coquete for a partner. Choose rather one of those retiring, modest, sensible girls, who have learnt to deny themselves, and posess some decided character. But above all seek for a good disposition.

Thus says one of our exchange papers. The Major says there are many of the right kind in this city who have no special objections to owning a good husband ca'h.

Cassius M. Clay on Slavery.
The Frankfort Commonwealth contains the following explicit and admirable declaration:
T. B. STEVENSON, ESQ.
SIR:—I ask the liberty to make through your columns a summary statement of my views upon the subject of slavery. By a portion of the people of this State I never expect to be fairly represented. To the great mass of the people, who have interest in suppressing truth, I would appeal against the calumnies of unscrupulous partizans.
Slavery is a municipal institution. It exists by no other right and tenure than the Constitution of Kentucky.
I am opposed to depriving slaveholders of their slaves by any other than constitutional and legal means. Of course, then, I have no sympathy for those who would liberate the slaves of Kentucky in other way. I have no connection with any man, or set of men, who would sanction or undertake the illegal liberation of slaves: and I feel bound, by my allegiance to the State of Kentucky, to resist (by force, if necessary) all such efforts.
Whilst I hold that the United States Constitution has no power to establish slavery in the District of Columbia, or in the Territories, or in any place of its exclusive supremacy, so I contend that in the States, once admitted into the Union and thereby become sovereign and independent, Congress has no power or right to interfere with or touch slavery without the legitimate consent of the States.
I believe that the addition of new slave States or slave territory to this Union, is unconstitutional and impossible.
I am the avowed and uncompromising enemy of slavery and shall never cease to use all constitutional and honorable and just means, to cause its extinction in Kentucky, and its reduction to its constitutional limits in the United States.
Born a Kentuckian and a slaveholder I have no prejudices nor enmities to gratify; but, impelled by a sense of self-respect, love and justice, and the highest expediency, I shall ever maintain that liberty is our only safety.
For the freedom of speech and of the press, I never shall cease to battle while life lasts. If there is any Kentuckian so base as to yield these Cons itutional and glorious privileges, without which it is the veriest mockery to talk of being a free people I envy him not. A slave to slaves, let him sodden in his infamy. With such I hold no fellowship—from such I ask no quarter. All I ask is an open field and a fair fight.
Your obedient servant, C. M. CLAY.
Frankfort, Ky. Jan 8. 1845.

Death of an Infant.
Art thou gone my child? Yes, thy toys, thy cradle, speak in language which cannot be mistaken. Such silence is truly eloquent. But thou canst not die again—death hath no more power over thee. Thy fond mother will no more agonize at thy parting sigh, O glorious immortality!
Thou hast not lost thy way, my little one, for prophets and apostles, and even Christ himself, have passed through the tomb before thee.
Thou hast entered the School of Christ in Heaven. He himself shall be the teacher, and there shalt thou study the volumes of eternity.—The map of God's universe shall not only be thy chart, but thou hast also the telescope of Heaven to assist thy unclouded vision. The rays that emanate from the uncreated One, shall forever illumine thy pathway. Thou shalt no more need the light of the Sun, nor moon; for God is thy sun and shield! From seraphim and cherubim shalt thou learn the notes of Heaven while Gabriel leads the choir. Yes, my child Christ died for such as thou art. He that cannot lie, hath said, "Of such is the kingdom of Heaven." Thy mother saw but the feeble dawn of thy being, for thou wast blighted in the verry bud of thy existence. Still thy capacities and powers of improvement shall continue to expand, and thou shalt rise higher and higher in the scale of being forever and forever, and no future blight or sorrow shall retard thy progress; but thou shalt experience one eternal, happy, glorious march of mind.
Live on then my sweet child; live in the society of the pure and holy; live where sin cannot annoy thee: tune thy golden harp, and bless God and the Lamb for immortality.
Yes when empires and kingdoms shall have passed away. When sun, moon and stars shall be blotted out, thy eternity has just begun.
Thou hast not forgotten thy mother—no love dies in Heaven but thou shalt be the first, on angel wing to welcome her to the abodes of bliss.
Farewell then my child; thy mother will weep no more for thee; she will no more sigh for thy return, for our seperation will be but momentary. Time is short, and will soon be swallowed up in the vast ocean of eternity. Soon the dawn of a never ending day shall be ushered in. Soon we shall mingle our songs with the innumerable multitude who unceasingly cry, "Holy, holy, is the Lord of hosts!"

The "Globe" in an article at length denounces the removals and appointments Mr Tyler is now making, and Mr Tyler himself for making them. They are pronounced unsatisfactory, and it is hinted they will not stand. The Globe among other things says.

A few days ago we had in the government official a column pretty well filled with the obituaries of old officers, and the births of new ones. The same journal of last evening has another list of mortality and of births. It is remarkable, too, that among those taken off by this new Tyler epidemic—which seems to be as fatal as the cholera he introduced among the public functionaries on his coming in—are to be found the chief executive officers of more than half the States in the Union. There are eleven marshals and three attorneys of the United States among the multitude marched out and in under new orders. The marshal—is the most active executive functionary in every State; mixing among the people; seeing everybody; serving processes and summoning juries; attending all the courts, and disbursing the expenditures in the several States—may be looked upon as the adjutant general of the commander-in-chief in the civil matters pertaining to the president's office in the several States. The marshals are, in fact, the hand and eye of the President, as well as of the judiciary.

ping their miserable paupers and criminals, to the United States by which means our country is inundated with the refuse of Europe. In view of these facts and the horrid frauds that many of you have recently perpetrated upon the ballot box, is it wonderful that the American people have become alarmed, and are now forming societies to effect a reform? Is it wonderful that an American feeling has become excited against you, and that distinguished statesmen are seeking a modification of our naturalization laws? Americans cannot and will not bear every thing. We therefore entreat you, as friends, to come to your senses, ere it be too late—to spurn the arrogant dictation of your despotic Priests—to return to your own true interests, your real friends, your sacred duty to your adopted country.

We avail ourselves of this occasion to state that as at present advised, we do not perceive the necessity for more than two political parties in this country. No necessity for an exclusive "Native American," party. We believe that all desirable reform can better be obtained without, than with such separate organization. All land parties—whether Natives or Foreigners, Masonic or Antimasonic, Conservatives or Radicals, Abolitionists or Anti abolitionists, Protestants or Catholics, Jews or Gentiles—organized for any single object, are in our judgement, detrimental to the great purposes of a free government. The natural tendency of such third party organization, is, expense, division, bitterness, and turmoil.

It is however probable that whatever shall hereafter be the parties or their names, political conflicts, as heretofore will continue to be principally between the 'American Whig Party' on the one hand, and the 'Foreign Loco Foco Party' on the other—that is to say, the Whig party will still continue to be the true friends of American institutions, American interests and American citizens, whether native or honestly naturalized, and their opponents will continue to use their stolen name of 'Democrats,' but at the same time, practice every species of folly, fraud and tyranny, against their own country and in favor of such foreign countries as can contribute to their own grovelling, partizan ascendancy.—And thus the respectable name of 'Democracy,' will be rendered synonymous with imposture, fraud and crime. But whether they will succeed in destroying the Tariff or Annexing Texas, or how long any considerable portion of the American people will continue to countenance such a palpable imposition as that of the Sham Democracy, time alone can disclose. But we entreat every good Whig to refrain from any act calculated to divide our forces or weaken our strength. The times demand concession and union—enlarged, vigorous and elevated patriotism.

There is one other important consideration growing out of the late Election which demands the grave reflection of every christian patriot—and that is the course that a large majority of the Catholic Priests, are understood to have pursued. With some few honorable exceptions, we believe they have employed the well known influence of their Priestly office, against the whigs—against the interests, constitution and laws of the land—against the peace, order and happiness of the American people—thereby showing their contempt of our Government and their hatred of our civil and religious institutions. We have no desire for a "Union of Church and State"—for a jumble of Religion and Politics—but we would not give much for a man's political sentiments that were not in some good degree under the control of religious principles. We wish no exclusion in religion, we desire the widest toleration of all religious sects, but if in our future political conflicts, we have got to fight the Pope of Rome and his Emmissaries, as well as the manufacturers of Europe, and the Destructives of America—if the Catholic Priesthood are to stigmatise as "Heretic," such pure and spotless Statesmen as Theodore Frelinghuysen, and to require of their ignorant devotees to "take the Pledge for Polk and the Priest." Yes, if such is to be the conduct of Catholic Priests, it is high time that the American people understood it, and prepared themselves to meet the impudent aggressions of this arrogant Despot.

That the manufacturing, Political, and religious Despots of Europe, are disposed to unite their influence with that of the American Destructives, in order to arrest the progressive and permanent Independence of the United States, is no longer doubtful. It is most apparent that the selfish interests of both Hemespheres have combined against Freedom—especially against the United States, as its last hope—and that America is to be the battlefield of Liberty's last dreadful conflict. All earth and hell seem to be concentrating their corrupting and undermining influences upon this once glorious, but now party ridden and illfated country. Will the descendants of the Washingtons, Henrys, Franklins, and Hancocks, continue to sleep upon a volcano? We would to God that our feeble voice could be heard in every dwelling throughout the land, and arouse the slumbering energies of our people to arrest that horrid calamity that is now approaching with such fearful velocity—"The prudent man foreseeth the evil and hideth himself, but the simple pass on, and are punished." Our readers will recollect the memorable speech of John Quincy Adams in Boston last autumn on the subject of the annexation of Texas in which he alluded to the fact that Gen Jackson had approved the Treaty of 1819 fixing the boundaries of Florida and in part of Texas. Mr Adams was fiercely met by gross charges of false statements in letters from Gen Jackson in language so offensive as to be deemed by Mr Adams unworthy of notice. Other advocates of annexation assailed Mr Adams with the ferocious design if possible of proving a falsehood upon him.

A few months have passed and now the 'old man eloquent' is vindicated before the world without any personal effort. According to the New York Express, Mr Governeur, a relative of the late President Monroe, under whose administration Mr Adams negociated this much mooted Florida Treaty, in 1819 he comes to the rescue, well armed with weapons that must soon settle the dispute. It seems that he has in his possession certain documents, the character of the contents of which he describes in a letter to the editors of the National Intelligencer, and which is also alluded to with sufficient explicitness by the Richmond Whig. From this last source it would appear that these documents go to show beyond all doubt, that what Mr Adams had said of Gen Jackson's opinions in 1819, was strictly true, were long the object of considerable solicitude on the part of the hero and his friends, and that they left nothing undone to get the papers into their hands, while Jackson was President. These attempts were unsuccessful, and the documents still remain in the family of Mr Monroe, the monuments at once of Mr Adams unspotted veracity, and of his foes baffled malice. One of them bearing the signature of Andrew Jackson himself, is said to contain expressions of his entire approbation of that Treaty of 1819, his declaration that Florida, its main object, was by it obtained on the best possible terms, AND HIS DERISION OF THE IDEA, AS BEING FOOLISH IN THE EXTREME, THAT TEXAS WAS OR COULD BE, OF THE SLIGHTEST IMPORTANCE TO THE DEFENCE OF THE LOUISANA FRONTIER.

The representations, made by letter writers at Washington, of the moral and social atmosphere of that city, are enough to make almost any man dread to be under the necessity of living there! The habits of McNulty, late clerk of the House of Representatives, brought to light since his defalcation, are enough to cause no little astonishment that such a man could ever have secured or continued the confidence of any man in Congress having the slightest claim to respectability.

McNulty affected much loco horror at the idea of depositing any of the government funds in the vaults of a Bank, and therefore in true sub treasury style kept the funds in his own and his gay companion's, breeches pockets—but when it was called for it was among the missing. Genuine locofocoism does not seem to have improved much since the days of leg treasurers under Mr Van Buren.

We notice by the Boston papers that a meeting has recently been held in that city, for forming an association of adults for the purpose of education. The design seems to be to establish a sort of school where adults may as far as possible make up the deficiencies of their early education. The meeting was addressed, by several men and among the number was George W Light Esq one of the editors of the Bangor Daily Gazette. His remarks are highly complimented in the report of proceedings.

We should think an institution of this kind would be the means of doing much good. The Mechanics Association in this city strives in some measure to accomplish a similar object.

It is now stated, that the friends of President Polk compelled Mr. Polk to ask for a withdrawal after asking for the office. They say, and well too that such a nomination would commit the new President to Tylerism, and with Tylerism a large majority of them say they will have nothing to do. The rumors from Washington are, that all the Tyler men have got "to clear out, or to be cleared out."

The Bath Enquirer, a loco paper, is out quite smartly against the appointment of the collector of that port. A statement of facts and all the circumstances, the Enquirer says will be laid before Mr. Polk and the question of who shall or who shall not be Collector will be considered and open one, and the intimation is, that he who can get the most and strongest names is the best fellow. Now rush!

The Alexandria Gazette of Monday last says, that the bill "to establish the Smithsonian Institution," &c has been reported back to the Senate from the Library Committee with amendments which leave the main feature of a National Library in the plan of it, (appropriating $20,000 annually towards that object.) The bill probably will be taken up, and pass the Senate to-day, there appearing to be a general disposition to pass it as it now stands.

District Court.

In the case of Wm H Vinton, submitted to the Jury Thursday afternoon, after being out until about 10 o clock in the evening they were permitted to separate without being able to agree, and were yesterday morning discharged. The Jury are understood to stand seven in favor of acquittal and five for conviction.

The trial of Mark L Hill, indicted for selling spirituous liquors without a license, was resumed and concluded—the Jury having found a verdict of guilty.

Gilman & Cutting for defendant.

James Herrin of this city was then put on trial on indictment found at the present term for retailing without license. A large number of witnesses including the clerk in the store were introduced and examined. The case was still on trial at the adjournment of the court at evening and will be resumed this morning.

McCrillis for deft.

Later from Europe.

By the arrival of the packet ship Oxford at New York we have later news. We give a summary.

The mammoth steamship Great Britain has made a trial trip, and proves a fast sailor.

The public dinner given by the merchants of London to Sir Henry Pottinger occurred on the 11th of Dec.

South America Affairs.

The Constitutionnel states that Viscount d'Abrantes, the Envoy extraordinary of Brazils to Prussia, had proposed to England and France, in the name of his government, to join an armed intervention to put a period to the war between the Eastern and Argentine republics, and enforce the stipulations guaranteed by the Brazils and France. The Journal anticipates no favorable result from the mission of M d'Abrantes. "He has seen, it says, "Lord Aberdeen, and found that Minister animated with the same dispositions which he had manifested to M Verela.—Lord Aberdeen is said to have thrown upon France, which is more interested in the question, the entire responsibility of the unaccountable, and often odious conduct held by the two nations during [illegible] years on the banks of the Plata. His lordship, moreover, expressed his readiness to interfere if France would join England." "M Guizot," the Constitutionnel says, "will content himself with repeating to the negotiator his declaration to the Chambers, that the quarrel of Monte Video and Buenos Ayres is a civil war between two republics, or rather between two presidents of the same republic, Oribe and Rivera, and that it behoves France to keep aloof from the war, and await the event."

The Morning Advertiser states that there are eighteen to twenty staunch Puseyites in the house of Commons, ready to maintain that the church ought to predominate over the state.

A commercial convention is on the point of being signed between Great Britain and Russia. Few articles remain to be settled, the preliminaries of the treaty having been agreed upon on both sides.

The accounts from the frontiers of Poland state that it was in consequence of communications from England that forty Polish noblemen were recently arrested, on a charge of being concerned in a conspiracy against the government. Has there been more Grahamizing at the Post Office?

Letters from Italy state that the continuous shocks of earthquakes by which, for more than a year past, the city of Ragusa has been disturbed, have created so much alarm, that it is in contemplation to evacuate the well known place, build a new Ragusa on some better protected spot on the Dalmatic shore.

The Bank of England has given notice that they will lend money on approved bills of exchange at 2½ per cent.

A letter from Leghorn, dated November 23d, states that a small number of Poles, coming for the most part from Algiers, embarked some days ago at that port for Smyrna, whence they intended to go for the purpose of joining the Caucasian insurgents, to assist them with their military knowledge. They announced that they would be soon followed by many of their countrymen who were living in exile in England and Belgium.

The "Great Britain" Steam Ship.

This fine vessel has undergone her first trial trip. At 8 o clock on Thursday morning the steam was got up, and shortly before 12 o clock she started down the channel, the engines at first making but 6 revolutions per minute, which gave a speed of about 4 knots. Subsequently the speed was increased, 9½ rev, giving 6½ knots, 10½ rev 7 knots, 10¾ rev 7½ knots; 12 rev 8 knots, 13 revolutions, 8½; 16 and 16½ revolutions 11 knots, against a strong head wind. Six of the fires were not lighted, and it was not intended to test the full power of the engines at the first trial.—The machinery is constructed for 20 revolutions of the main drum, or 60 of the screw per minute, and at that rate it is fully expected the vessel will make 12 or 13 knots, and that too, with but little vibration, or with scarcely any noise. The steering qualities of the vessel, after being submitted to several tests, are spoken of in high terms.

Four of the largest locomotive engines ever constructed are about to be built for the Sheffield and Manchester railway. The cylinders are to be 18 inches, the stroke 5 feet, the wheels, six of them, 4½ feet diameter, and all six coupled.—The weight of the engine alone, when loaded with fuel and water, is 24 tons. It is calculated that on a level they will draw separately from 1,000 to 2,000 tons.

A great number of cases were landed at the London custom house a few days ago, containing presents of great value from the Emperor of Russia to the Queen, Prince Albert, Sir R Peel, the Dukes of Devonshire, and Buccleuch, &c. Some superb malachite vases sent to the Queen are valued at £10,000.

Highly Important from Mexico—Twenty Days Later.

The New York Express gives the following intelligence:

It appears that there had been no battle fought between General Santa Anna and General Paredes, as has been previously reported, but that on the contrary, Santa Anna had under his command an army of twelve thousand men, nine thousand of whom were infantry and three thousand Cavalry, and that he with this Army was at San Martin Teamelucco, a town about eighteen leagues distant from the city of Mexico, on the road to Puebla. Paredes had a more numerous force under him, but they were undisciplined. He, with his forces, was in the same vicinity.

The popular feeling at Vera Cruz was very strong against Santa Anna. A military chief named Cenobio had committed great depredations on the estates of Santa Anna, which are near that city, by destroying his houses and 10,000 cattle. It was conceded, however, on all hands, that Santa Anna was still in great force.

MAINE LEGISLATURE.

Augusta, Jan 23

In the Senate the order in relation to an amendment of the proper law which was refused a passage by the Senate came back from the House, that body insisted on its vote passing the same. The Senate receded and concurred.

The Texas and Oregon Resolves were taken up. The pending motion to lay upon the table was taken and lost. After a few remarks from Mr Dunn, urging immediate action, the resolves were passed to be engrossed by a silent vote.

Bill to incorporate the Bangor Steam Navigation Company came up, on its passage to be engrossed. Mr Otis opposed the passage of the bill. Mr Chase advocated. On motion of Mr R[illegible] it was laid upon the table.

In the House the bill additional to Town Courts postponed.

Resolve in relation to the annexation of Texas and the occupation of the Oregon came from the Senate, passed to be engrossed. Laid upon the table and ordered to be printed.

There was a report at New Orleans that Santa Anna had been defeated and had fled from Mexico. This cannot be true as we have later intelligence by the way of Havanna.

A warm rain commenced last evening.—This morning slump and slosh have the day.

CONGRESS.

Washington Jan 20

In the Senate Mr Benton presented the resolutions of Missouri on the subject of Texas.

A bill to pay Massachusetts for a balance due for disbursements in the last war. This was ordered to be engrossed by a vote of 27 to 17.

Several memorials against the annexation of Texas were presented.

In the House Mr Hammett, of Mississippi, addressed the committee in favor of the annexation of Texas.

He was replied to by Mr Marsh of Vermont and defended the orderly, and industrious and moral people of the North from the opprobrium attempted to be passed upon them by Southern members.

Mr Rhett of South Carolina then got the floor, when the Committee rose and the House at ten minutes before four o clock adjourned.

TEMPERANCE RALLY.
